

July 15, 1967

SECRET OF
THE LIBERTY

Walt Rostow, Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs who meets with the five-man National Security Council, is responsible for the bereavement of 34 American families who lost sons or husbands in the Zionist attack on the USS Liberty.

Rostow, one of the "Chosen Three" who advised LBJ during the recent Mideast crisis and manned the "hot line" to the Kremlin, had ordered the Liberty to the war zone to use its "big ear" electronic equipment to monitor Egyptian military communications, decode messages and transmit them to the Israeli high command and to jam Egyptian communications.

Rostow, considered by all informed anti-communists to be a security risk, tipped off his Zionist collaborators of the mission of the Liberty.

However, personnel aboard the Liberty got mixed up and jammed the Jews, instead of the Arabs.

Informed of this seeming treachery, the one-eyed head of Israeli armed services, Gen. Moshe Dayan, ordered retaliation against the Liberty. That's why 34 American sailors were killed.

The Liberty, incidentally, is not part of the regular Navy. It is a part of the National Security Agency, a subsidiary of the National Security Council, on which Walt Rostow sits as Special Assistant to the President.

Although this particular plot of Walt Rostow's went haywire, the next issue of WASHINGTON OBSERVER NEWSLETTER will list 20 separate instances of how the Administration allegedly gave material aid to the Zionist cause during the brief hostilities.